

I value the privacy of my home and the limited time I have with my family. Prior to the Wisconsin no-call legislation it was inevitable that the phone would interrupt our dinner or family time. Do not allow unrequested consumer marketing to be forced upon families with intrusive phone calls.